During January 1952 the following activities took place at White Cloud Airfield in Canton:

- On the morning of 3 January all nine MIG-15 planes stationed at White Cloud left for an unknown destination, and no MIG-15 was at the Airfield for the remainder of the month.
- 2. On 10 January four reconnaissance planes arrived at White Cloud, and one or two of these have been making occasional reconnaissance flights along coastal areas.
- Six YAK-9's, six YAK-10's, and six other YAK type planes were stationed at White Cloud and making daily practice flights.
- In mid-January steel doors were added to the hangers in the caves northeast of the Airfield, and the project is now completed.
- 5. Fourteen new-style Soviet trucks and 350 cases of unidentified machiner; were being stored in the large hangers at the foot of Wuts'englou (五層樓), south of the Airfield. No planes have been in these hangers since they were completed.
